

Customer Service Charter

Our customers can expect:

prompt, courteous and accurate service;

a safe and clean environment;

clear and accurate information about business policies;

employees with professional expertise and knowledge;

a wide variety of everyday retail products;

a business operated in an ethical and professional manner;

the premises to be opened and closed according to advertised hours;

security and confidentiality regarding financial transactions.